

YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS

Garfield Carries Probably Every Northern State.

New York State Goes Republican by 30,000 or More.

The City Falls Below its Usual Democratic Majority by Nearly 20,000.

Kings County also Casts a Democratic Majerity of 8,000 Less than Usual.

New Jersey Goes Republican, as do Maine and Connecticut.

Brace Probably Elected Mayor, Together Trunx-Morton Elected to Congress from the Eleventh District and Aster Probably Defeated in the Seventh-Ben Wood Defeats Muller in the Fifth District-Belmont Elected in the First District.

At the time of going to press with this edition of THE SUN it is probable that the Republicans have carried every Northern State othough nothing definite has been heard s yet from the Pacific States. Whatver the result may be, however, in these States. Garfield and Arthur are elected by a majority of over seventy-five electoral votes. It believed that had this city and Brooklyn given their usual Democratic majorities-the majority in New York confidently promised by Mr. Kelly-New York State would have given its electoral vote for Hancock and English.

For the rest, Potts (Rep.) is in all probability elected Governor of New Jersey, the State also giving a majority for the Garfield electoral ticket; Connecticut elects Bigelow (Ren.) Governor, and also gives a majority for the Garfield ticket: Maine gives largely increased Republican gains over September, as does Ohio over October. Indiana also will probably show a Republican gain over the October vote. Mahone is probably defeated in Virginia.

The difference in time—over four hours—between New York and San Francisco will delay any definite news from the Pacific coast until a The next Congress will probably be Demo eratic by a majority of three or four. The Senate is still in doubt, and will depend upon the result in Nevada.

The Presidential vote in this city was 109,511 for Hancock and 75,262 for Garfield, giving Hancock a majority of 34,259, with two strong Democratic Assembly Districts to hear from The Democratic city and county ticket is elected by majorities ranging probably from 3,000 to ock's Majority in the City 8,480-Mr. McLaughlin's Ticket Scratched.

The election in Brooklyn was quiet and orderly. The saloons were all closed, and there were few arrests for intexication or disorderly conduct. The number of persons who remained at the polis all day was largely in excess of that on any previous year, and be-trayed the intense interest in the election. Men who possess large fortunes peddled tickets for the first time, and remained several hours at the polls. The District Attorneyship engrossed the attention of local politicians, and there was much scratching of ex-Judge Troy's name. The McLaughlin ticket was badly scratched throughout the city. Complaint was made that the regular committee had failed to properly man the polls, and in certain districts there were only anti-McLaughlin Democrats representing the Kinsella faction of the party. The result in Kings County contained several surprises. The nev, J. Hyatt Smith's election was hardly expected, but his personal popularity won votes where Mr. Chittenden's money could not avail. Mr. Smith was nominated first by the Haiters' Convention, then by the Independent Republicans, and then endorsed by the Democrats. He is a Republican but was understood to be in favor of Gen. Hancock. Mr. Chittendon's friends were toth last night to confess his defent, and hoped that the official figures would show for him a small majority.

District Attorney Catlin's redection was due solely to the unpopularity of James Troy the McLaughlin candidate. The latter's defeat was conceded by the Democratic Campaign Committee last night. The defeat of John M. Claucy by James Coyne in the Fourth Assembly District is a victory for the Kinselia faction of the Brooklyn Democracy.

Edgar M. Cullen, Democratic candidate for Justee of the Suprome Coyrt in the Scoond Judicial District, seems to have a small majority. Justice of the Suprome Court in the Second Ju-dicial District, seems to have a small majority.

Rinting About Wrong Dealing, and his Friends Accusing Irving Hall.

Late last evening John Kelly sat in a private room in Tammany Hall, surrounded by his lightenants. Among them were ex-County Clerk Gumbleton, Edward D. Gale, Gen. F. B. Spinola, Major Quiney, Henry D. Purroy, Edward Kearney, and Fire Commissioner Gorman. All were very quiet. They moved softly about the room, and spoke in whispers. Mr. Kelly sat apart from them listening to the reading of returns by a messenger. At midnight he complained of the absence of important returns.

"There is trouble somewhere," he replied.

Republican ticket. This county gives Hancock 1.000 majority against 2,300 for Tilden in 1876. the same ratio would give the state to hancock by 40,000. It is probable, however, that Hancock's majority will be over 50,000, as the Republican vote here is larger than at other points. The Democrats carry all the Congressional districts. Felton in the Seventh and Speer in the Ninth District, both Independents and members of the present Congress, are beaten by the regular Democratic candidates. The Congressmen elected are:

1.—George R. Black. 2.—H. G. Turner. 3.—Philip Cook. 4.—Hugh M. Buchanan. 5.—N. G. Hammond.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 2 .- The complete vote of the State gives Garfield 18,188, Hancock,

RHODE ISLAND.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—The Hancock electoral ticket is chosen by a large majority, and the returns indicate the election of the Demo-eratic candidates in all the Congressional dis-tricts. The election in this city nassed off quietly, with the exception of a difficulty be-tween a white man and a negro at poll 3 of the Eighth Ward, in which the negro was wounded by a pistol shot.

67,315; Thompson (Dem.), 51,196; Sargent 67,315; Thompson (Dem.), 51,195; Sargent (Greenback), 1,172, and Almy (Problittion), 260. Boston gives Long 25,666; Thompson, 27,191; Sargent, 293; and Almy Sl. The Republicans have carried all the Congressional districts, except the Fourth, which is carried by Leopold Morse (Dem.), the vote being, Morse, 10,631; Hayes, 10,560; scattering, 27.

WHEELING, Nov. 2.—Returns from throughout the State indicate a majority for Hancock of INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.-The Democrats made considerable gains over the October vote. but the heavy Republican gains in the northern part of the State have given Garfield nearly Porter's plurality. He will carry the State by 5,000 majority over Hancock.

one-half of the State give a net Republican gain over the vote for Governor in 1879, when Foster had 17,000 majority, of 8,000. Garfield's majority will be about 33,000, if the relative gains are continued.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, Nov. 3 .- The result in this State is very close, and an official count may be required to decide whether the Garfield or Hanquired to decide whether the Garfield or Han-cock electors are chosen. The Republicans will make a gain of five Senatora—from Indiana, New Jersey, Connecticut. New York, and Pennsylvania. If they hold their own in Nevada they will have a majority, with Arthur's casting vote, of one; but if Fair, as seems probable, shall be chosen in Nevada, the Democrats will have a majority of one.

MATSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—So much of this district is innecessible by telegraph that it is impossible to give accurate details so early. The Republicans have made desperate efforts to elect their candidate for Congress, promising the Greenbuckers to carry out their programme, ringing the canages on the tariff in the mining regions, and disbursing their share of the corruption fund liberally: but all the indications are that they have failed. This county, Muson, gav. Phister, Demo, 700 majority; Bracken, over 800; Nicholas, over 400. Lewis is claimed by the Republicans at 500; the Democrats concede 200. RECEIVING THE RETURNS.

tation to Mr. Dowd-Gen. Arthur Cheered. The usual impatient throngs gathered early in the evening at the national and State headquarters of the two parties, in front of the morning newspaper bulletins, and wherever returns were displayed or read. The early returns gave the Republicans opportunity to begin cheering first, and they were cheering long after the Democrats had mostly gone home. The hurrahs that were at first sent up were clean cut and distinct, but as the night wore on they became husky, and the sound was far the noisiest throng was in and around the Republican State Committee headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Early in the evening returns were read by Col. Charles Spencer and were put on bulletin boards on Twenty-fourth street. In the headquarters were Emory Storrs. C. D. Murray of Connecticut, Judge Theaker, and other Republicans. In an upper room were Gen. Grant, his son Ulysses, Gen. Arthur. Pierpont Morgan, Judge Cowing, William Dowd, Assistant District Attorney Lyon, and John I. Davenport. "Well I see that you are besten " was Gen Grant's salutation to Mr. Dowd when he entered the room.

The Republicans were, most of them, in good numor. They were certain that the State had gone Republican by from 20,000 to 25,000. They gone Republican by from 20,000 to 25,000. They formed this estimate from the returns from this city, which showed early, they said, that its mipority for Hancock would not be over 40,000, if it reached that figure.

At 9% o'clock Gen, Arthur entered the State Committee room. The whole assembly arose and cheered wildly. Gen, Arthur bowel, smiled, and said: "Gentlemen, I thank you all. I did not come here for this, but for news from Morton's district."

"We have not a word," said Col. Bliss. "It has not yet been reached in the canvass."

Then, gentlemen, as Mr. Tilden said. I will see you later, "said Gen, Arthur, and he went away.

The scene around the hotel at haif past 10 was one of the intensest excitement. The despatches received by Col. Bliss in the committee room were promptly bulletized, and as the gains in the State were seen there was a continual cheer. At this time the returns showed that Grace was leading Dowd for Mayor, and this was something of a wet blanket to their enthusiasm. Then the news was received that Morton was elected to Congress, and there was more cheering.

eninusiasm. Then the news was received that Morton was elected to Congress, and there was more cheering.

At midnight the corridors of the hotel were still packed. The throng was hoarse from cheering for the successful candidates. Mr. Charles Backus was among those who were in the committee room, and his mobile face stronded as he heard the reports of Republican success. The bar of the hotel was doing an exceedingly brisk business. Happy and enthusiastic Republicans opened bottles of wine, tuneful Republicans sopened bottles of wine, tuneful Republicans song songs, noisy Republicans cheered, intexicated Republicans shouled and yelled, and every bulletin and every figure on the lane was cheered, whatever its import, Gen. Arthur sent to the hotel a despatch saying: You can count on this State for 40,000.

The enthusiasm at the Republican National headquarters broke out early, and at midnight the committee claimed every Northern State, not so much on flaures as on despatches from friends. New Jorsey was the next to call out sterms of appliause. Colorado, California, Nevacia, and Illinois were announced as solid in rapid succession. Cheering for four next President? became frequent. Massachusetts and Pennsylvania were counted in the inn at 30,000 majority each. Late in the evening it eccurred to some one to propose tires cheers for Conking. Grant but been treviously remembered in nelsy demonstration, Still later some one proposed cheers for R. R. Hayes. They were given, but not fustly. An attempt to follow with shouts for Wm. A. Wheeler was a total builture, and ended in a quiet smile all around. At midnight returns from townships in different States were being read.

On the platform in Chickering Hall were many well-known Republicans and a glee club. A crowd of students from Columbia Cologe sat in a body in the gailery and they joined in the appliause with their cologe cry. Benjamin F. "Fellow Democrats," he said, "the last time I appeared on this platform I said that I hoped I would have the pleasure of being able to congratulate you upon the results to be announced here to-night. I am more glad to be able to say that this hope is realized. Although it is early in the evening, the returns that have reached us justify me in saying to you that the majority of Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock in this State will not be less than $5,000. [Great applause.] In 1876, at about 10 o'clock in the evening of the day of election we were enabled to announce that the majority of Sammel J. Tilden (applause) would be upward of $5,000. I have no doubt, fellow Damocrats, that the soldier-statesman, Winfield Scott Hancock has revelved a majority in this Empire State that will make him the next President of the United States. [Applause.] The majority of William R. Grane, I am confident, will be between 22,000 and $5,000. An ex-Mayor of this city said, 'We won't trust you!' The Rev. Mr. Tyng was one of those who refused to trust him. DEMOCRATS HEARING THE NEWS.

At the National Democratic Headquarters, 138 Fifth avenue, there was much depression throughout the evening. The dejection was intensified as the night advanced and the defeat of Gen. Hancock seemed assured. The demunisation of John Kelly as the main cause of the unexpected Republican strength in New York city was loud and frequent. It was asserted that he had sold out the party for personal ends, and that his enmity to Mr. Tilden was the main cause of the disaster to the Democracy. Only mengre returns were announced, and the Namengre returns were announced, and the National Committee were accluded in an upper room. There was not even a cheer for Gen. Hancock up to midnight.

Many Democrats met in the St. James Hotel instevening at 8 o'clock to hear the returns. They packed the corridors, and cheered every indication of Democratic gains in the State. The returns came in fast, and at half past eight, when they showed that Garfield was likely to run within 31,000 of Hancock, there was a perceptible lengthening of the faces of Chairman Fowler, Gen. W. W. Averill, Col. E. T. Wood, Justice Rilbreth, and other prominent Democrats.

Later in the evening the feeling at the Democratic State Committee rooms was intense against the management of the city canvass. They said that the city had been sold out by ambitious politicians.

Gen. McClellan was in the room a short time after 11 P. M., and he placed no confidence in the Republican cinim of 4,000 majority for New Jersey. He said that the State would go Democratic by from 5,000 to 8,000.

Rowell rested 2 hours and 25 minutes during the night: Dobler, 2 hours and 13 minutes; Littlewood, 3 hours and 51 minutes, and How-ard 2 hours and 32 minutes. They all suffered greatly in the early morning from the intense cold. Pegram is laid up with rheumatism in the muscles and thighs. Though he did five miles during the night his chance is virtually gone. He will, if possible, come out on the track

At 3 o'clock the scores were: Rowell, 210 miles 4 laps; Littlewood, 172 miles 2 laps; Dobler, 201 miles 4 laps; Howard, 160 miles 6 laps, Pegram was very feverish, and is not likely to be seen on the track again. Rowell completed his 200th mile at 1:43 o'clock P. M. He was then 9 miles and 3 lars in front of Dobler and 36 miles and 1 in in front of Littlewood. At 5:30 P. M.
